

84th Annual Principles of Colon and Rectal Surgery

Course: Transition to Practice

Exhibitor Prospectus

The University of Minnesota Division of Colon & Rectal Surgery along with Colon & Rectal Surgery Associations Ltd. (CRSAL) and the Minnesota Colon and Rectal Foundation (MCRF) present the 84th Principles of Colon & Rectal Surgery Course: Transition to Practice. This course will be held on June 26-27, 2026, at the McNamara Alumni Center (200 Oak Street S.E., Minneapolis, MN 55455). This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ and American Board of Surgery (ABS) Accredited CME. See website for full details. Other healthcare professionals are invited to attend and will receive a Certificate of Participation.

The 84th Principles of Colon and Rectal Surgery Course at the University of Minnesota is designed to support surgeons at every stage as they transition from training into confident, high-impact practice. This year's theme, Transition to Practice, blends practical wisdom with cutting-edge research from the University of Minnesota Division of Colon and Rectal Surgery.

The course is organized into focused, high-yield sessions and features two distinguished named lectures, the Goldberg Lecture by Dr. Mika Varma (UCSF) and the Frykman Lecture by Dr. Josh Smith (MD Anderson). This program offers practical guidance, inspiration, and connection for surgeons committed to excellence in colorectal surgery.

We are pleased to provide exhibit opportunities for this event. See the next page for details and the exhibitor interest form. Upon receipt of your form, you will be provided with a University of Minnesota Accredited Continuing Education Exhibit Agreement (UMN ACE-EA) form. Your spot will be reserved once the form has been signed and returned. All exhibitors must have a fully executed UMN ACE-EA to be eligible to exhibit; company exhibitor/sponsorship forms cannot be used in place of or in addition to the UMN ACE-EA.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to support the 84th Principles of Colon & Rectal Surgery Course: Transition to Practice. Your participation would contribute to our event's success and demonstrate your commitment to our community and its initiatives. If you have additional questions, please contact Alex Broek, broek012@umn.edu.
